

AFRICAN LAND FORCES SUMMIT 2025

OPTIMIZING LAND FORCES FOR THE EMERGING SECURITY ENVIRONMENT

ACCRA, GHANA

April 7-10, 2025

Co-hosted by U.S. Army Southern European Task Force, Africa and the Ghana Army

Sponsored by the U.S. Army Chief of Staff, ALFS 2025 brings together senior leaders from across Africa and other partner nations, April 7-10, in Accra, Ghana, to address shared security challenges.

- PLENARY 1: SYNCHRONIZING BORDER SECURITY WITHIN AFRICA | APRIL 8
- PLENARY 2: UNDERSTANDING AND RESPONDING TO DISINFORMATION THREATS | APRIL 8
- PLENARY 3: TECHNOLOGY AS A FORCE MULTIPLIER FOR COMBATING CONTEMPORARY THREATS | APRIL 10
- PLENARY 4: LEVERAGING PROFESSIONAL MILITARY EDUCATION FOR FUTURE OPERATIONS | APRIL 10

AFRICAN LAND FORCES SUMMIT 2025

U.S. Army Southern European Task Force, Africa hosted the inaugural African Land Forces Summit (ALFS) in Washington, D.C., in May 2010. The theme for the first summit was “Building and Maintaining Strong Relationships.” The U.S. Army Chief of Staff attended as the guest of honor, as well as 23 chiefs of land forces from African partner nations.

ALFS 2010-2025

2010 Washington, D.C.

2012 Kampala, Uganda

2015 Dakar, Senegal

2016 Arusha, Tanzania

2017 Lilongwe, Malawi

2018 Abuja, Nigeria

2019 Gaborone, Botswana

2020 Addis Ababa, Ethiopia

2021 Virtual Summit

2022 Columbus, GA

2023 Abidjan, Côte d'Ivoire

2024 Livingstone, Zambia

2025 Accra, Ghana

FOLLOW US
#ALFS

