

U.S. ARMY SOUTHERN EUROPEAN TASK FORCE, AFRICA

SETAF-AF is the Army's headquarters that wakes up every day thinking about Africa.

Every day across Africa, approximately 2,000 U.S. Soldiers support a partner-led, U.S.-enabled approach. As the Army Force responsible for directing operations in Africa on behalf of U.S. Army Europe and Africa, SETAF-AF executes operational and tactical theater Army responsibilities to support the U.S. Africa Command mission.

CORE MISSIONS

- Synchronize the Army's Operations, Activities and Investments in Africa.
- Provide scalable contingency response options from the Platoon to 2-Star Joint Task Force Headquarters.
- Senior responsible command for all U.S. Army personnel and facilities in the strategically critical ally of Italy.

THE U.S. ARMY IN AFRICA

Strengthening and enabling partners is the Army's main effort in Africa. SETAF-AF synchronizes hundreds of Theater Security Cooperation events across Africa each year.

- Multinational Exercises
- Crisis Response
- Convene Land Forces Forums
- Civil-Military Engagements
- Advising, Training, Equipping
- Medical Readiness Exercises
- Setting the Theater
- Enabling Joint Operations